French Pronouns: Y vs EN (Basic)

Use 'Y' for Places (Introduced by 'à', 'en', 'dans')

Example: Tu vas à Paris ? -> Oui, j'y vais. (Meaning: Are you going to Paris? -> Yes, I'm going there.)

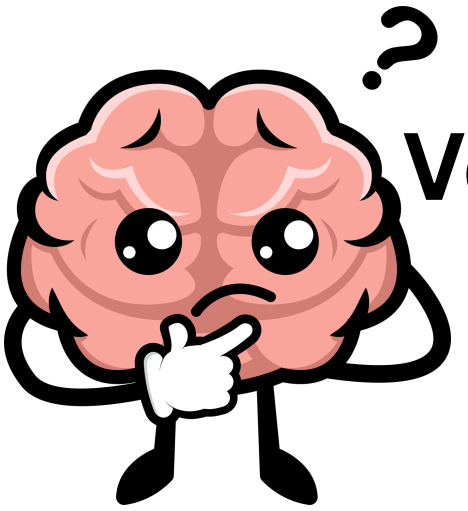

Use 'EN' for Quantities & 'De' phrases

Example: Tu veux du café ? -> Oui, j'en veux. (Meaning: Do you want some coffee? -> Yes, I want some.)

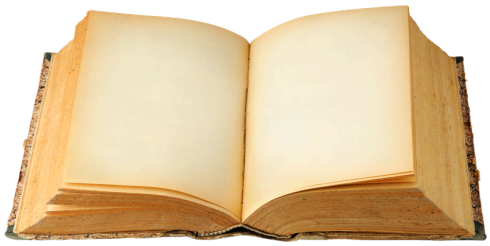

LingoMantrahub.com

French Pronouns: Y vs EN

Verbs with 'À' + Object ➡️ Use 'Y'

Example: Tu penses à ton avenir ? -> Oui, j'y pense. (Meaning: Are you thinking about your future? -> Yes, I'm thinking about it.)

Verbs with 'De' + Object ➡️ Use 'EN'

Example: Tu as besoin de ce livre ? -> Oui, j'en ai besoin. (Meaning: Do you need this book? -> Yes, I need it.)

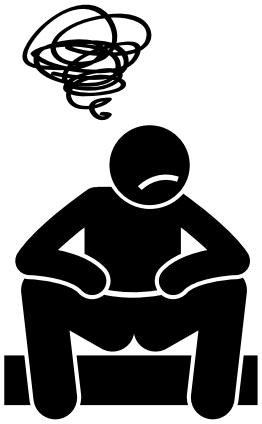

LingoMantrahub.com

Advanced Idiomatic Expressions

Idiomatic expressions with 'Y'

Example: Ça y est ! (It's done!) | J'y vais. (I'm leaving.)

Idiomatic expressions with 'EN'

Example: En avoir marre -> J'en ai marre ! (Meaning: I'm fed up with it!)